

And I'll sail her up the west coast, through villages and towns
I'll be on my holidays, they'll be doing their rounds
They'll ask me how I got her I'll say "I saved my money"
They'll say 'Isn't she pretty?' That ship called Dignity

‘Nothing in my hand I bring,
Simply to Thy cross I cling.’

'... the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.'

1 Corinthians 1:18

‘Now Naaman was commander of the army of the king of Aram. He was a great man in the sight of his master and highly regarded, because through him the Lord had given victory to Aram. He was a valiant soldier... but he had leprosy.’

‘Naaman’s servants went to him and said, “My father, if the prophet had told you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much more, then, when he tells you, ‘Wash and be cleansed’!” So he went down and dipped himself in the Jordan seven times, as the man of God had told him, and his flesh was restored and became clean like that of a young boy.’

2 Kings 5:13,14

‘Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said to himself, “My master was too easy on Naaman, this Aramean, by not accepting from him what he brought. As surely as the Lord lives, I will run after him and get something from him.”’

2 Kings 5:20
