A large crowd of his disciples was there and a great number of people from all over Judea, from Jerusalem, and from the coastal region around Tyre and Sidon, who had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases. Those troubled by impure spirits were cured, and the people all tried to touch him, because power was coming from him and healing them all.

now... (v21)

Blessed are you when people hate you... (v21)

But woe to you are rich...
(v24)

Woe to you are well fed
now... (v25)

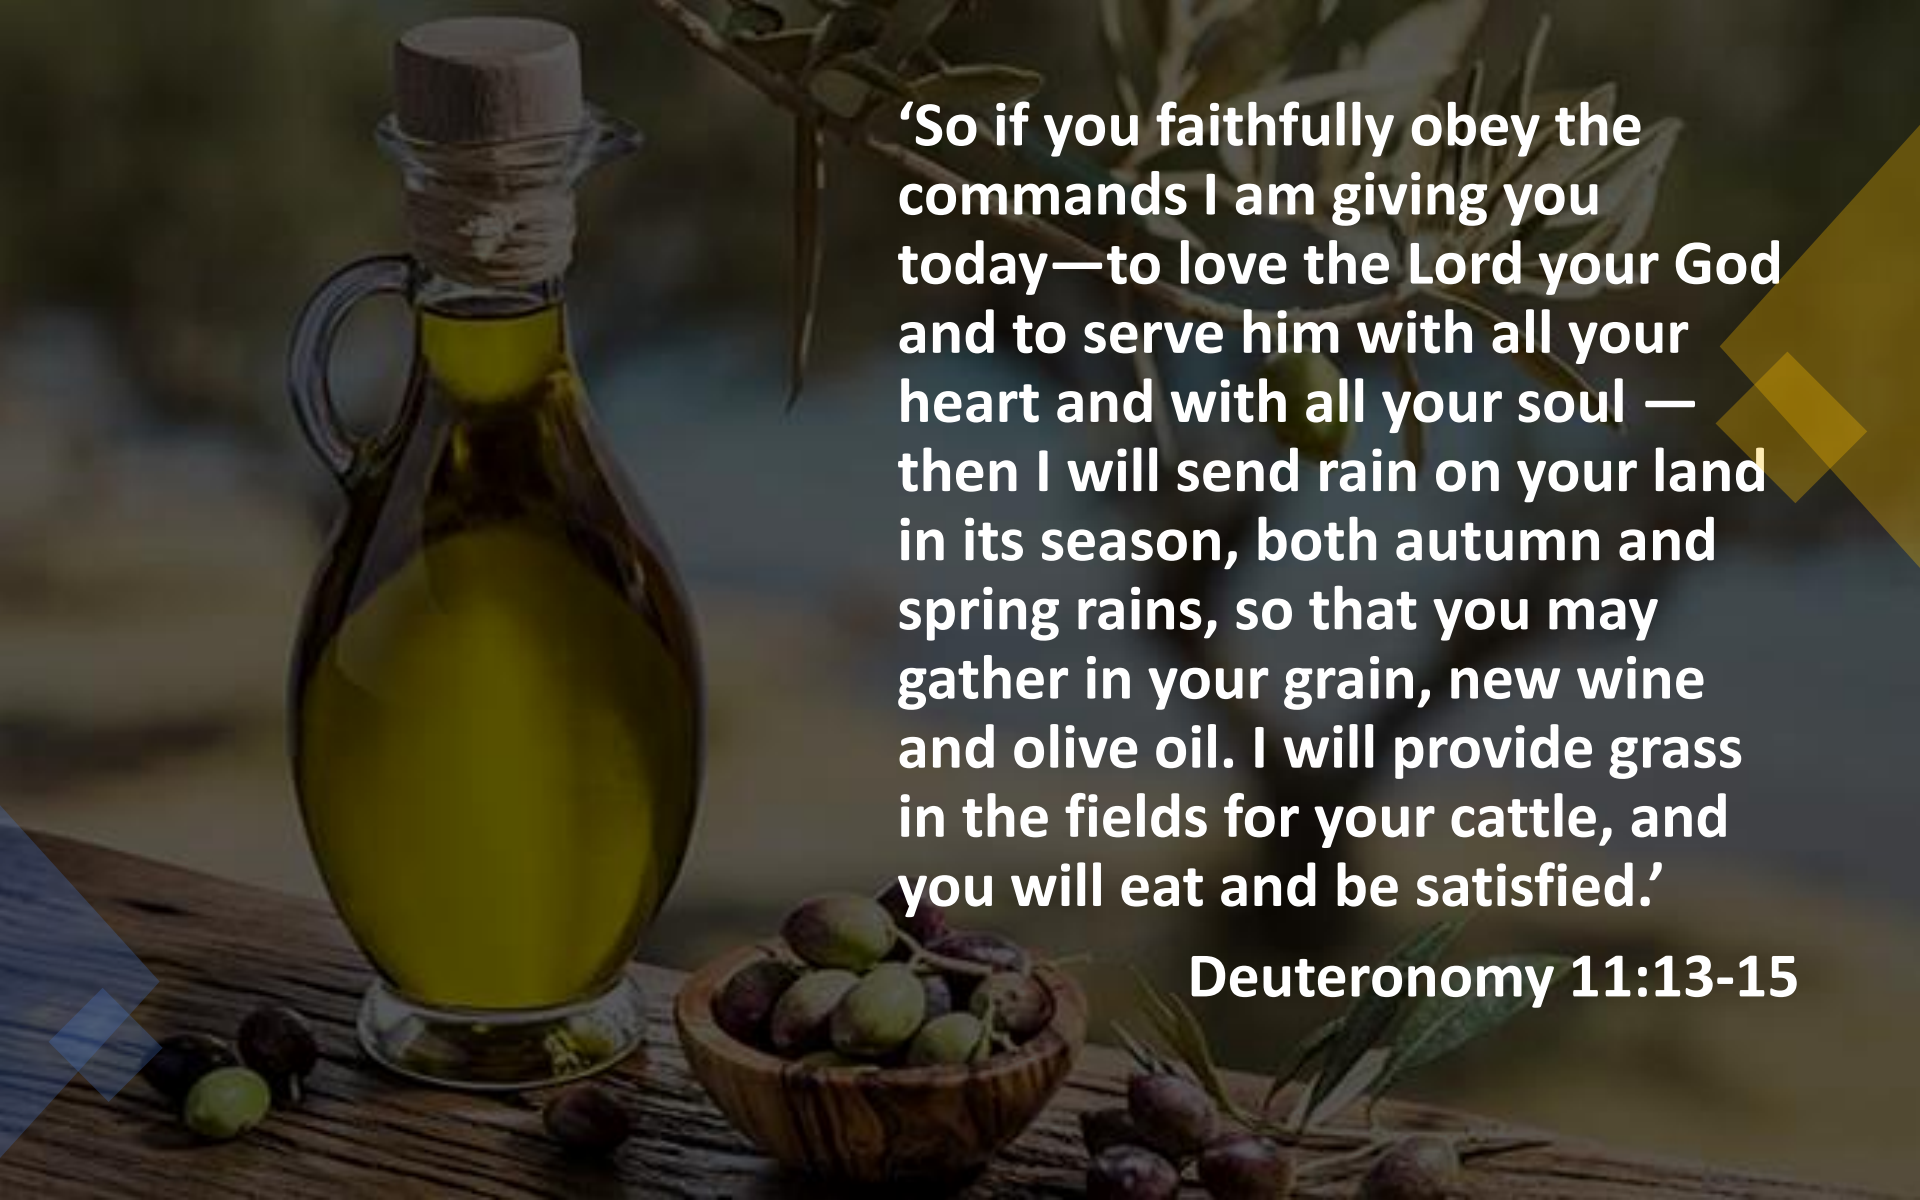

Woe to you laugh now... (v25)

Woe to you when everyone speaks well of you... (v26)

but I tell you...’

A still life composition featuring a glass bottle of olive oil, a wooden bowl of olives, and olive branches on a wooden surface. The bottle is on the left, filled with golden olive oil. In the foreground, a small wooden bowl is filled with olives, some green and some dark. Olive branches with leaves and olives are scattered around the bowl and bottle. The background is a soft-focus olive tree. The text is overlaid on the right side of the image.

‘So if you faithfully obey the commands I am giving you today—to love the Lord your God and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul — then I will send rain on your land in its season, both autumn and spring rains, so that you may gather in your grain, new wine and olive oil. I will provide grass in the fields for your cattle, and you will eat and be satisfied.’

Deuteronomy 11:13-15
